

Name: _____

Social Studies 7 Chapter 3

The British North America

1. Define Mercantilism:

The British Cross the Atlantic

2. Who was Walter Raleigh and why were his attempts all failures? p.55 p#2

3. Why was it important for Britain to build colonies in America? (list four from the bullets and EXPLAIN). p.55
(dots)

4. What were the Thirteen Colonies? (Look at the map on page 55 to help you). They are in green.

1)	2)	3)
4)	5)	6)
7)	8)	9)
10)	11)	12)
13)

5. Look at the chart on page 57. What different goals are reviewed for New France compared to the Thirteen Colonies? (Orange chart)

The British Colonies in Atlantic Canada

(Blue box)
6. Read the case study on page 60. What nation extinction are they discussing in this article? What happened to them?

7. Who was Shanawdithit? Why is she important? p. 60 + 61 blue boxes.

8. How did events in Europe affect the Colonies in North America? p 61 p#1

9. Define sovereignty: p 62

10. How did the French and British use the Mi'kmaq people to continue hostile relations between the three groups? p. 63 p#1

The Company by the Bay

11. Why did creating a monopoly of land to the Hudson's Bay Company create hostile relationships with other countries? p 65

12. Why were there constant battles over the fur-trading posts for years? p 66 p#4

13. What was Rupert's Land - and who was it named after? p 65 p#4

The British Continue to Explore

14. Who was Henry Kelsey? Why is he important? p 67 p#2

15. How did he impact the trading partnership between First Nations and the British? p 67 p#4

16. Who was Anthony Henday? Why is he important? p 68 p#1

17. How did he impact the trading partnership between First Nations and the British? p 68 p#3

18. Who was Samuel Hearne? Why is/was he important? p68 p#5

19. How did he impact the trading partnership between First Nations and the British? p 68 p#6

20. Who was James Cook? Why is he important? p 71 p#2

21. How did James Cook impact the trading partnership between First Nations and the British? p 71 p#3